GEORGIA FRONTIERE

OWNER AND PRESIDENT

As Georgia Frontiere begins her 11th year as owner and president of the Los Angeles Rams, she can look back upon a decade of distinction during which she has provided the leadership and direction for one of the most highly-respected teams in professional football.

Georgia's Rams have been in the playoffs seven times during the 1980s and have emerged as one of the most consistently successful teams in the National Football League.

The Rams' success on the field is matched by the team's front office acumen. The club has gained league-wide acclaim for its sound management and fiscal policies and a strong foundation has been created for continued success into the 1990s.

Innovation is the key to this dynamic community leader. With Georgia's urging, the NFL has stretched the helping hand of friendship across the ocean to bring the excitement of American football to other lands. Georgia has long advocated international play and, with her support and guidance, the acclaimed American Bowl series is now running strong in both Britain and Tokyo. The London American Bowl game is in its fourth renewal while the initial Tokyo American Bowl, featuring the Rams and 49ers, sold out in less than three hours time.

The Rams have been in the front rank of overseas games, playing first in American Bowl '87 at London's historic Wembley Stadium, then being invited to inaugurate the Japanese Bowl series at the Tokyo Dome. Says Georgia, "I believe international play can be a catalyst for peace. We all know how great our football game is, it is now our responsibility to let the rest of the world know. I believe in it and my team believes in it as well."

Georgia Frontiere's interests range far beyond the football field. This multi-dimensional person is a patron of the arts and has received acclaim for her charitable efforts on two continents. She is a Patron of the Los Angeles Music Center and Orange County's Opera Pacific. She is a member of the President's Circle of New York's Metropolitan Opera Guild and has recently been elected to the Board of Directors of New York's prestigious Collegiate Chorale. She has long been a supporter of the world-reknown St. John Ambulance Brigade in Great Britain and was honored by the Boy Scouts of America and

Georgia was named winner of this year's Orange County Sports Hall of Fame's Lifetime Achievement Award for her ongoing charitable commitment and community involvement. Long an avid supporter of youth sports, Georgia was named Grand Marshal of this year's Shrine North-South Football Classic, played at the Rose Bowl. The Los Angeles Boys and Girls Club, which has Georgia Frontiere on its Board of Directors, is also a favorite. The Times/Rams Charity Football Game has raised over $3 million for youth charities and the Boys and Girls Club is one of the primary beneficiaries.

Education has always been an important part of Georgia's life. She is a member of the Board of Trustees of Chapman College and is a Life Associate of Pepperdine University. She also underwrites college and university scholarships at several institutions of higher learning, including UCLA and USC.

Her role and commitment to community are second to none. Georgia has introduced a nationally-acclaimed drug awareness program to selected schools in Los Angeles and Orange counties and, under her direction, the Rams have teamed with the U.S. Attorney's Office to present a series of drug education assemblies to Southern California high schools.

Last year, Georgia joined with Orange County Sheriff Brad Gates and other community leaders in developing and introducing the Drug Use is Life Abuse program in Orange County schools. This involvement has won praise from President George Bush and other leaders.

Georgia still finds time to sit on the Western Regional Executive Board for the National Foundation for Ileitis and Colitis and the Board of the American Foundation for AIDS Research. She is on the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Orphanage Guild, is a contributor to the National Center for Learning Disabilities and is a Benefactor of the St. Jude Children's Research Center, which named her its Woman of the Year for 1986.

Her influence within the league continues to grow. Georgia was recently named to the executive committee of NFL Properties, the licensing and marketing arm of the National Football League.

Georgia has two children, son Chip Rosenbloom, who is married to the former Kathleen Melville, and Lucia Rodriguez, who is married to Lupe Rodriguez. Georgia has three grandchildren, William, Stuart and Andrew, ages 6, 4 and 1.

JOHN SHAW
Executive Vice President

John Shaw is in his tenth year of service with the Rams and is the senior member of the organization's front office team. A native New Yorker, Shaw is a practicing attorney as well as a certified public accountant.

Before joining the Rams, Shaw was with the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co. Prior to that, he practiced law in California.

Shaw serves as an advisor to team owner Georgia Frontiere on all financial, business and legal matters. Along with other members of the Rams' management team, Shaw is closely involved with negotiations in the area of player contracts.

Shaw currently lives in Westwood with his wife, Michele. He attended the University of San Diego and graduated with a bachelor of science degree in accounting. Shaw continued his education at New York University, securing a law degree. The Shaws have a daughter, Alexandra.

JAY ZYGMUNT
Vice President – General Counsel

Jay Zygmunt, a key member of the Rams' front office, begins his seventh season with the club. His principal duties include negotiating player contracts, advising on club legal matters and consulting on financial affairs. He also serves as the liaison to both the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players Association.

A native of Chicago, Zygmunt graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 with a degree in business administration. After obtaining his CPA certification, he went on to Northwestern University School of Law where he received his Juris Doctor degree. Prior to joining the Rams, he was associated with Arthur Andersen & Co. and engaged in private practice.

Zygmunt, 37, is a member of the American Bar Association's Forum Committee on the Entertainment and Sports Industries, the Sports Lawyers Association and serves on the Board of the NFL Insurance Co. He makes his home in Marina del Rey.

MARSHALL KLEIN
Vice President-Media and Community Relations

As the Rams' Vice President of Media and Community Relations, Marshall Klein's duties span several departments in the organization. He serves as a liaison between owner Georgia Frontiere and various departments and is closely involved with the countless charities which are supported by the Rams and their owner.

Klein oversees the public relations and entertainment departments and represents the team at numerous charitable and civic events. This 47-year-old native of Pittsburgh had spent 21 years with the Los Angeles Times, the last 15 as Sports Editor of the newspaper's Orange County Edition, before joining the Rams in May of 1983. He has been a part-time lecturer at several Southern California universities, among them Cal State Fullerton, Cal State Long Beach and Cal State Dominguez Hills.Klein makes his home in Tustin with his wife, Katie, and their children, Philip, Michael, Benjamin and Molly.

JACK FAULKNER
Administrator of Football Operations

Jack Faulkner is renowned as one of the most astute minds in the game and is highly regarded for his ability to find and evaluate talent.

This 35-year veteran of the National Football League has done it all since becoming a defensive secondary coach for the Rams under Sid Gillman in 1955. He has been general manager and head coach (Denver Broncos); defensive coordinator (New Orleans Saints); assistant coach (San Diego Chargers, Minnesota Vikings) and the secondary coach for the Rams' 1979 Super Bowl team. He has also served as the Director of Player Personnel for the Saints and the Director of Pro Scouting and Assistant General Manager of the Rams.

The Youngstown, Ohio, native was the AFL Coach of the Year in 1962 (Broncos) and was secondary coach of the Chargers in 1961 when the defense set an NFL record in pass interceptions with 42.

DICK BEAM
Director of Operations

Dick Beam begins his ninth year as Director of Operations having gained a league-wide reputation as an outstanding administrator. He oversees the club budget, supervises the daily operation of Rams Park, arranges for team travel and serves as a liaison with the Rams and Anaheim Stadium. The All-CIF football star from Whittier was formerly the Director of Administration for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He was an assistant coach to John McKay at USC from 1971-75. He has run in several marathons, including the Los Angeles Marathon. Dick and his wife, Dorothy, have a son, Donn and a daughter, Cathy. They live in Fullerton.

STEVE NOVAK
General Counsel

Stephen Novak begins his first year of service with the Rams' front office.

Before joining the Rams, Novak served as a federal prosecutor at the United States Attorney's Office in San Diego.

Prior to that, he was engaged in the private practice of law specializing in the sports and entertainment field.

A native of Georgia, Novak graduated from the Univeristy of Texas at Austin in 1977 with a degree in communications (radio, television and film). After securing his Juris Doctor degree, he obtained an LL.M in Taxation at the University of San Diego School of Law.

Novak, who attended the University of Texas on a golf scholarship, has competed on amateur and professional golf circuits in Europe, Asia and South America.

He is single and currently lives in Carlsbad.

JOHN MATH
Director of Player Personnel

In his capacity as Director of Player Personnel, John Math's primary duties are overseeing the Rams' involvement in the annual college draft and player evaluation. Math has earned acclaim for his ability to foresee development in young athletes with pro football potential. A native of San Gabriel, Math attended Alhambra High School before moving on to the University of California from 1950-1954. Math was a defensive back under the legendary Pappy Waldorf. Math and his wife, Maxine, live in San Juan Capistrano. They have five children, John Jr., Gayle, Wanda, Nancy and Cathy.

BARBARA ROBINSON
Director of Administration

A valuable member of the Rams' front office for 22 years, Barbara Robinson has held a myriad of jobs with the club and has been instrumental in the growth of the organization. Robinson, in her role as office manager, was extremely active in the move of the team offices to Anaheim in 1980, coordinating with contractors, architects and construction people for the new offices. In 1986, her talents were rewarded when Georgia Frontiere appointed her Director of Administration. Her primary responsibilities are the maintenance of the Rams Park facilities, assisting in team travel arrangements and serving as liaison with car dealers for sponsorships. She and her husband, Don, live in Moreno Valley. They have eight children, Keith and Kevin, Linda, Katherine, Joe, Annie, Jim and Karen.

PETE DONOVAN
Director of Sales and Promotions

Entering his seventh season with the Rams, Pete Donovan's responsibilities have been expanded to include supervision of the executive suites at Anaheim Stadium. He continues to create corporate sponsorships and promotional concepts for the club as well as direct the team's advertising efforts. Donovan served as Director of Public Relations for the Rams from 1983 to 1986. A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., he has taught sports marketing classes at Cal State Fullerton, served as a marketing panelist at NFL owner's meetings and is currently on the league's Marketing Committee. Donovan came to the Rams after six years as a sports writer for the Los Angeles Times. A founder and former President of the Orange County Sports Hall of Fame, he stills serves on that board as well as the Board of Directors of the Jim Everett Foundation. Donovan and his wife, Janet, live in Fullerton. They have seven children: Kym, Rena, Robbie, Shelly, Stacey, Debbie and Andrea.

JOHN OSWALD
Director of Public Relations

A home-grown Southern Californian, John Oswald was born in Fontana, grew up in Laguna Beach, began with the Rams as a summer intern and spent four seasons as Assistant Director of Public Relations before being named to his current post in 1987. Oswald works closely with the media, coordinating interviews, the press box at Anaheim Stadium and the various publications produced by the department. He is editor of the Rams' media guide and GameDay magazine, which is sold at all Rams' home games. Oswald, who played basketball and ran track at Laguna Beach High School, received his degree in Sports Administration from Biscayne College in Florida in 1983. He is single and makes his home in Anaheim Hills.

PAUL (TANK) YOUNGER
Administrative Assistant/Consultant

Tank Younger joined the Rams' front office team in 1987 after spending the previous 12 seasons as Assistant General Manager of the San Diego Chargers. This 40-year veteran of the National Football League assists with contract negotiations and player personnel evaluations, among other duties. Younger began his playing career as a fullback in the Rams' Bull Elephant backfield in 1949. He played for the club until 1957 and served the Rams as a part-time scout before working as a full-time member of the department from 1967-75. Tank's wife, Lucille, is a pediatrician in Los Angeles. The couple has two daughters, Hariette and Lucy and a son, Howard.

JACK YOUNGBLOOD
Administration

One of the National Football League's all-time great defensive ends, Jack Youngblood begins his fourth year as a member of the Rams' front office team. Youngblood was selected to seven Pro Bowls during his legendary 14-year career. His 15 seasons are fourth on the Rams' all-time list and he still holds the club record for consecutive games played with 201. Youngblood currently serves the Rams in player relations, public relations, community relations and marketing. He also works as a color analyst on Ram radio broadcasts.

JOHN ROBINSON

HEAD COACH

For John Robinson, winning and football seasons have almost always been synonymous.

Each fall since 1972, Robinson produced a winner — whether as a collegiate assistant (USC, 1972-1974), pro assistant (Raiders, 1975), collegiate head coach (USC, 1976-1982) or pro head coach (Rams, beginning 1983).

By 1987 that streak had reached 15 consecutive winning seasons.

So, when the Rams fell to a 6-9 record in '87 football people waited to see how he would react.

Like all winners, Robinson reacted like a champion, guiding the 1988 Rams back into the playoffs for the fifth time in his six seasons with the club.

To go one step further, the Rams were midway through the '87 season and many felt they were on the brink of disaster. Under Robinson's leadership, the team won 12 of its next 16 regular-season games, including a 7-2 start in '88.

"I felt it was a major turning point for the Ram franchise," Robinson says today, "It 's important to respond well when you're in a crisis. It was a traumatic experience in '87 and many people thought it would take 3-5 years to rebuild the team, but we have bounced back to being real contenders."

Robinson has now won 58 times in six seasons with the Rams, the victory total representing the most by any coach in Rams' history. His overall Ram record is 58-44 (.568 winning percentage) and his overall head coaching mark stands at 125-58-2 (.683).

Long recognized as one of the truly dynamic leaders in sports, Robinson's success on the field is only part of his widespread appeal. Robinson's passion for the game joins an upbeat, enthusiastic outlook to create a unique ability to communicate.

After being named the franchise's 13th head coach on Valentine's Day of 1983, Robinson's impact on the Rams and the NFL was dramatic and immediate. Robinson took a team that had an 8-17 record over two seasons and posted a 9-7 mark, earning a wild card berth. The Rams went on to upset the Cowboys at Dallas in that game.

In 1984, the Rams improved their record to 10-6, once again earning a wild card playoff spot.

In 1985, the Rams won the NFC Western Division title with an 11-5 record. They became the first team to shutout Dallas in a playoff game when they beat the Cowboys in the second round of the NFC playoffs, 28-0, at Anaheim Stadium.

The season ended one week later with a loss to the eventual Super Bowl champion Bears in the NFC Championship game at Chicago.

In 1986, the Rams posted a 10-6 record and advanced to the wild card playoff game before losing to the Redskins in Washington, 19-7.

One of the Southland's most engaging sports personalities, Robinson is known as one of the finest motivational speakers in the country. His effervescent personality exudes confidence, optimism and humor, making him popular among players, fans and the media.

Considered one of football's foremost experts on the running game, Robinson has produced four NFL rushing champions since coming into the league. He also has the unique distinction of coaching the most prolific college runner of all-time (Marcus Allen, 1981) and the most prolific professional runner of all-time (Eric Dickerson, 1984).

Born July 25, 1935, Robinson was raised in Daly City (CA) and played football and baseball at Serra High School in San Mateo, earning Catholic All-American and All-Northern California honors as an end on the football team.

Robinson earned a bachelor's degree in education from the University of Oregon while playing end for the Ducks. He lettered when the Ducks won the Pacific Coast Conference title in 1957 and he played briefly in Oregon's 10-7 loss to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

His coaching experience spans more than 25 years. He was an assistant at Oregon (1960-71) and at USC (1972-74) before moving to the Oakland Raiders in 1975 to be an assistant under his boyhood friend John Madden. In 1976, he was named to succeed John McKay as head coach at USC.

While at USC, Robinson won numerous honors including Pac-10 and West Coast Coach of the Year in both 1976 and 1979. In 1976, Robinson was the first rookie coach in 25 years to take his team to the Rose Bowl.

Under Robinson, USC fielded seven consecutive offensive powerhouses while perpetuating the Trojans' distinguished heritage of defensive excellence.

In 1976, 1977 and 1979, the Trojans finished third, fourth and fourth in the country in total offense and the 1979 team gained more yards than any team in USC history. Defensively, the Trojans finished first in the Pac-10 four times under Robinson and the 1980 team led the conference in every team defensive category.

At USC, Robinson coached two Heisman Trophy winners, former Ram running back Charles White, who announced his retirement this past off-season and Allen (1981). Allen was the first 2,000 yard rusher in college football history gaining 2,342 yards in '81.

Robinson also coached 18 All-Americans at USC, including 1979 Lombardi Award winner Brad Budde.

Robinson resigned as the USC coach on November 23, 1982, then accepted a position as Senior Vice President of University Relations for USC before taking the Ram job.

LARRY BROOKS
Assistant Defensive Line Coach

Entering his 18th season with the Ram organization, and seventh as assistant defensive line coach, Larry Brooks will once again be imparting his All-Pro lore to the Rams' defensive front. Among his many responsibilities this season will be assisting in the development of Rams' 1989 first-round pick Bill Hawkins.

Brooks, a late-round (14th) choice in the 1972 draft from Virginia State of Petersburg, played 11 seasons at defensive tackle for the Rams from 1972-1982.

Brooks' NFL playing career consisted of playing in 131 games, including 122 as a starter. Brooks was named All-Pro in 1977, 1978 and 1979 in addition to being selected to the Pro Bowl from 1976 through 1980.

Brooks played an important role alongside Jack Youngblood, Cody Jones and Fred Dryer as the Rams won seven consecutive NFC Western Division Championships. Brooks was the starting defensive left tackle in the Rams' only Super Bowl appearence in 1980. Brooks also started in three NFC Championship games for the Rams.

At Virginia State-Petersburg, Brooks was named to AP's first team Little All-American team. He also earned all-conference honors and was named Virginia Small College Lineman of the Year.

A native of Prince George VA, Brooks attended Prince George High School where he lettered in both football and track.

An avid outdoorsman who enjoys hunting and fishing, Brooks makes his home in Fountain Valley with his wife, Colleen, and their son, Larry, Jr.

DICK COURY
Quarterback Coach

Now in his fourth season as Rams' quarterback coach, Coury has been an instrumental force in the development of quarterback Jim Everett, who led the NFL in touchdowns in '88 and was first in passing yardage in the NFC.

In addition, the Rams' passing game jumped from 27th overall in 1987 to 3rd in 1988.

Coury has coached on all levels of football beginning with high school in 1958 when he was named head coach at Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana. Coury wasted little time in making quite a name for himself as his teams won three CIF titles in nine seasons and made it to the Championship game two others. His overall record at Mater Dei was a stunning 96-9-3 (94%). Among his stars at Mater Dei was quarterback John Huarte who went on to win the Heisman Trophy at Notre Dame in 1964.

In 1967, Coury joined forces with John McKay and the USC Trojans, serving as defensive coordinator.

During Coury's three years at USC, the Trojans went to the Rose Bowl each year and won the national title in 1967.

After three years at USC, Coury was offered the head coaching position for the newly formed football program at Cal State Fullerton. Coury led the Titans to two winning seasons and was named Coach of the Year in the CCAA (California Collegiate Athletic Assn.) after his initial season in 1970. In 1971, the Titans defeated Fresno State in the Mercy Bowl at Anaheim Stadium.

Destined for the National Football League, Coury became an assistant to Denver Broncos' head coach John Ralston in 1972. After two seasons with the Broncos, he was named head coach and president in charge of operations for the Portland Storm of the World Football League. Coury was runnerup for WFL Coach of the Year in 1974.

When the WFL folded, Coury returned to the NFL as an assistant coach, spending one year under Tommy Prothro at San Diego and six seasons with Dick Vermeil at Philadelphia. With Coury coaching the quarterbacks and receivers, notably Ron Jaworski and Harold Carmichael, the Eagles made it to their only Super Bowl appearence in 1981.

Coury helped inaugurate the USFL when he was named as the first head coach of the Boston Breakers in 1983. Coury guided the Breakers to to an 11-7 record and was named Coach of the Year. Coury remained with the Breakers as they moved to New Orleans in 1984 and Portland in 1985. While coaching the Breakers in New Orleans, Coury hosted an innovative weekly coaches show that gave Breakers' fans a chance to call one of the team's plays. In 1986, Coury was offered his spot on the Rams' staff.

The always congenial Coury and his wife, Bonnie, have seven children and five granchildren. They make their home in Anaheim Hills.

ARTIE GIGANTINO
Special Teams Coach

Artie Gigantino enters his third season guiding the Rams special teams. Gigantino's special teams had another season highlighted with special moments in 1988. Mike Lansford became the Rams' all-time scoring leader; Dale Hatcher made a successful return from knee surgury, and Ram rookie of the year Robert Delpino led the club in special team tackles. All of these achievements reflect the winning attitude Gigantino brings to his post.

In 1987, Gigantino's special teams blocked four punts while posting the third best net punting average in the NFL (35.6). Additionally, the Rams special teams accounted for four touchdowns while allowing just one. Blocked punts against Pittsburgh, St.Louis and Washington played a key role in Ram victories.

Gigantino came to the Rams in 1987 after spening eight years as an assistant coach at USC, including five as the Trojans' defensive coordinator.

At USC, he coached more than a dozen players who went on to play in the NFL including Indianapolis' Duane Bickett and San Francisco's Riki Ellison.

Prior to his tenure at USC, Gigantino spent six seasons as an assistant at California, where he worked with the outside linebackers as part-time coach and graduate assistant. Gigantino coached the Bears' defensive line his last four seasons and also served as recruiting coordinator in 1978.

Born June 14, 1951, Gigantino played linebacker and fullback, and also wrestled and played on the baseball team at J.P. Stevens High School in Edison, N.J.

Gigantino attended Bridgeport University in Bridgeport, CT, where he was a three-year starter at linebacker during seasons in which the team won 22 straight games.

He and his wife, Joanne, make their home in Anaheim Hills with their daughter, Jennifer.

MARV GOUX
Defensive Line Coach

Now in his seventh year as defensive line coach after spending 26 years as an assistant at USC, Marv Goux continues to instill his winning attitude to the Rams' defensive front. Considered one of the nation's finest line coaches while at USC, Goux has quickly earned that same recognition in the NFL. In 1988, Goux's line led by Gary Jeter's 11.5 sacks, dropped the opposing quarterback 20.5 times as the Rams led the league in sacks with 56.

Prior to accompanying John Robinson when he left USC to become head coach of the Rams, Goux spent 30 years at 'SC as both a player and a coach. Goux's Trojan heritage began in 1952 when he started at linebacker for the Rose Bowl team that defeated Wisconsin, 7-0. A junior college All-American at Ventura J.C. in 1951, Goux went on to start three years for the Trojans (1952,54,55-he was injured in 53) despite a relatively small 5-8, 185-pound frame.

During his last two seasons, Goux played on both sides of the ball, playing center and linebacker. Goux is just one of two Trojans to twice win the Davis-Teschke Award, given annually to the most inspirational player on the team. He was also the captain of the 1955 team.

As both a player and a coach, Goux has gained a reputation as an intense competitor with an admirable sence of sportsmanship. At USC, Goux made the classy gesture of personally congratulating each member of the opposing team that beat the Trojans.

At USC, Goux coached 12 first team All-Americans, including Gary Jeter, who played six seasons with Goux as a member of the Rams. Goux's other All-Americans were John Grant, Charles Weaver, George Achica, Ron Mix, Marlin and Mike McKeever, Dan Ficca, Damon Bame, Tim Rossovich, Jimmy Gunn and Al Cowlings. The Trojans won five national championships during Goux's stay on the coaching staff.

Before joining the Trojans, Goux spent a year as head coach at Carpenteria (CA) High School, taking them to the small school finals with a 9-1 record in 1956.

Born September 8, 1932, in Santa Barbara, Goux makes his home in Long Beach with his wife, Patti.

GIL HASKELL
Running Back Coach

Entering his third year as Rams' running back coach after spending his first four years in charge of special teams, Gil Haskell has upheld the Rams' reputation for having one of the best ground attacks in professional football.

Last season, Haskell showcased his talents by producing yet another 1,000 yard rusher in Greg Bell (1,212), who led the league in rushing touchdowns with 16.

In 1987, Haskell inspired the dramatic comeback of Charles White as he led the NFL in rushing with 1,374 yards, during a trying time for the Rams with the trade of Eric Dickerson. With Haskell's devotion and skill, the running game continued to flourish without missing a beat.

During Haskell's four years as special teams coach, his unit achieved league-wide status as being one of the best-coached specialists in the NFL. In 1985, Haskell's special teams squad ranked No. 1 in the league and three of his players have been selected to the Pro Bowl: punter Dale Hatcher in 1985, punt returner Henry Ellard in 1984 and kick returner Ron Brown in 1985. In Haskell's four seasons as special teams coach, only one opponent scored a touchdown on a punt or kickoff return while the Rams scored eight.

The spirited Haskell joined the Rams in 1983 after serving as John Robinson's special teams coach for five seasons at USC. He also was the wide receiver coach for two seasons.

Prior to joining the coaching staff at 'SC, Haskell coached at St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco for nine years, including the last five as head coach. As head coach he recorded an impressive record of 34-15. He was also the track coach for four years, winning three Catholic Athletic League titles.

Haskell began his coaching career at Riordan High School in San Francisco, serving as line coach for three years while also coaching the track team, which won three Catholic Athletic League titles.

Haskell's Uncle, the late Dr. William O'Grady, was a part owner of the San Francisco 49ers and before going to USC in 1978, he had not missed a 49ers home game in 22 years.

Born September 24, 1943, in San Francisco, Haskell is single and makes his home in Diamond Bar.

HUDSON HOUCK
Offensive Line Coach

As Hudson Houck enters his seventh season with the Rams, his list of accomplishments continue to grow. Last season, Houck, for the fourth straight year had three of his starting offensive lineman selected to the Pro Bowl (Jackie Slater, Doug Smith and Tom Newberry), a feat that exemplifies Houck's coaching magnitude. The evolution of Tom Newberry to All-Pro status in 1988 after only three seasons in the league has been a direct result of Houck's guidance.

Houck's well-known reputation preceded his arrival from USC, where he served as offensive line coach for seven years under John Robinson.

At USC, Houck saw that each of his players maximized their potential as he produced seven first team All-Americans: Marvin Powell, Pat Howell, Brad Budde, Keith Van Horne, Roy Foster, Bruce Matthews and Don Mosebar.

Houck's lines led the way for Heisman Trophy winners Charles White and Marcus Allen. With the Rams, his offensive lines have been instrumental in the success of Eric Dickerson, particularly in 1984 when he set the NFL single-season rushing record with 2,105 yards; Charles White in 1987, when he led the league in rushing with 1,374 yards and last season when Greg Bell gained 1,212 yards and led the NFL in rushing touchdowns with 16.

Houck and defensive line coach Marv Goux were the first two coaches John Robinson hired when he came to the Rams in 1983. The move paid quick dividens as Houck's offensive line allowed the fewest sacks in the league (23 to tie Miami) in his first year with the Rams.

A Los Angeles native, Houck played football in college for coach John McKay's USC Trojans, where he was a backup center on the 1962 national championship team, and was the starting center in 1963. A back injury in 1964 forced him to return to a backup role. He earned his degree in physical education in 1965.

After graduation, Houck became a teacher and assistant football coach at Crescenta Valley (CA) High School in 1967 and 1969. His 1968 season was interrupted by service in the United States Army.

In 1970, Houck returned to USC where he spent two years as the head freshman and varsity graduate assistant. He left 'SC for a brief stint at Stanford where he served as offensive line coach from 1972-75, before coming back to join John Robinson at his alma mater.

Houck is single and makes his home in Newport Beach.

STEVE SHAFER
Defensive Back Coach

Entering his sixth season as Rams' defensive back coach, Steve Shafer has proven to be a pillar of stability at a position that has faced a lot of adversity. In his six years, Shafer has had nine different starting cornerbacks (Pat Thomas, Rod Perry, Kirk Collins, Eric Harris, Gary Green, LeRoy Irvin, Johnnie Johnson, Jerry Gray and Mickey Sutton). Yet despite all the changes, Shafer has consistently supplied the Rams with a top-notch secondary.

Last season, Shafer had to face more adversity in his secondary as Pro-Bowl safety Nolan Cromwell retired during training camp just prior to the start of the season and Vince Newsome suffered a season-ending neck injury in October. Michael Stewart replaced Newsome in the starting lineup and with Shafer's tutilage performed superbly by recording 60 tackles and making two interceptions in 10 starts. Another bright spot in 1988 was Jerry Gray's third consecutive selection to the Pro Bowl team.

Shafer's biggest challenge may have been in 1986 when injuries forced All-Pro's Gary Green and Eric Harris to retire. At that point in time it looked as if the secondary would face a long rebuilding period but, under Shafer, it continued to be a strength as Jerry Gray developed into a Pro Bowler at Cornerback.

Shafer prepped at Burbank High School where he played quarterback before moving to the College of the Sequoias for two years. Shafer then transferred to Utah State where he played both quarterback and defensive back for the Aggies in 1961 and 1962.

Drafted by the San Fransico 49ers, Shafer opted to play for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League. He spent five years with the Lions, while also serving as the Athletic Director and head of the Physical Education Department at Westminster High School in British Columbia.

Shafer began his coaching career at the College of San Mateo in 1968 where he took over as head coach in 1973. In his two years at the helm, Shafer posted a record of 15-6-1.

He then moved to San Diego State where he coached each of the defensive positions during his eight seasons there before joining the Rams.

Shafer makes his home in Laguna Niguel with his wife, Jane, and their children, Don and Shawn.

FRITZ SHURMUR

Defensive Coordinator and Inside Linebacker Coach

Truly the dean of the Rams defense, Shurmur has put together one of the most respected defenses in the National Football League. In 1988, the Rams implemented a new defensive scheme called the "Eagle" defense. Under Shurmur's leadership, the new defense shutdown some of the most potent offenses in the NFL, while recording impressive marks and praise in the process.

The Rams finished the '88 season ninth in total defense (311.7 yards per game); sixth against the rush (105.4 yards); 17th against the pass (206.3 yards); seventh in points allowed (18.3 per game); and first in sacks with 56. The league-leading sack total of 56 tied the team-high mark set in 1980 and 1985, and marked the second time in Shurmur's NFL career that his defensive unit was number one in sacks. Included in the total were two games of nine sacks each (Los Angeles Raiders, Atlanta Falcons), the most in one game since October 24, 1976 (Saints).

It was Shurmur's defense that held the opposition to just 26 points in the final three and most crucial weeks of the season to earn the Rams a wild card spot in postseason play: (Chicago, 23-3; Atlanta, 22-7; San Francisco, 38-16).

In 1985 and again in 1986, Shurmur's defensive troops finished fifth in total defense leading the Rams to playoff appearences both seasons. The 1985 season was highlighted with a 20-0 shutout of the Dallas Cowboys in the NFC divisional playoff game. It was the first time in 36 years that the Cowboys had been held scoreless in a playoff game.

Shurmur, along with Fred Whittingham, ranks number one in coaching seniority with the Rams, as he begins his eighth year with the team and 15th in the NFL. He was one of two finalists for the head coaching spot with the Cleveland Browns during the 1988 off-season.

Shurmur became defensive coordinator in 1983 and quickly made an impact. The Rams went from 27th to 15th in total defense and served notice that they would soon be in the top echelon of NFL defenses. In 1984, the Ram defense moved up another notch to 14th overall and third best against the rush.

In 1982, his first season with the Rams, Shurmur was the defensive line coach. He was only able to coach in that role for nine contests as the players' strike shortened the season to just nine games.

Prior to joining the Rams, Shurmur was with the New England Patriots for four seasons, two years as their defensive line coach and the last two as the Patriots defensive coordinator. In 1979, Shurmur's defense lead the NFL in sacks with 57.

Shurmur began his NFL coaching career in 1975 with the Detroit Lions, where he served as defensive line coach prior to being named defensive coordinator in 1977.

He was an assistant football coach and head swimming coach at Albion College from 1956 thru 1962, when he became an assistant football coach at the University of Wyoming. At Wyoming, he coached the defensive line before being named head coach in 1971. Shurmur served as head coach for four seasons (1971-1974) prior to joining the Lions in 1975.

The affable and highly respected Shurmur authored his first book, "Coaching Team Defense" in 1988. Published by MacGregor Sports Education, the book covers every phase of defensive football and has received critical acclaim by his peers and fans alike.

Born July 15, 1932, in Riverview, Michigan, Shurmur attended Wyandotte (Mich.) High School and Albion College. He was named All-Michigan Intercolligiate Athletic Association as a center and earned the conference MVP award as well. Shurmur also made All-Conference as a member of the baseball team. He graduated with a master's degre in educational administration.

Shurmur and his wife, Peggy Jane, make their home in Diamond Bar, California. They have three children: Sally Ann, Scott and Susan.

NORVAL TURNER
Tight End and Wide Receiver Coach

Turner begins his fifth season as a member of the Rams' coaching staff, his third as both tight end and wide receiver coach after working exclusively with the tight ends his first two years.

1988 was a record-setting year for Turner's receiving corps as Henry Ellard set a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86, while also leading the NFL in reception yardage with 1,414 yards; Pete Holohan set a Ram record for most catches in a single season by a tight end with 56 and Damone Johnson caught a career-high 42 receptions with six touchdowns. In Addition to these outstanding performances, Turner has played a vital role in the development of first-round pick Aaron Cox, who caught five touchdown passes last season, including the team's longest of the year on a 69-yard scoring play, and second-round pick Willie Anderson, who is expected to blossom under Turner's guidance.

Turner has a long-term association with John Robinson, dating back to 1970 when Robinson, then an assistant coach at Oregon, recruited Turner to be the Ducks' quarterback. His collegiate career was highlighted by throwing for 1,261 yards as a senior in 1974. He then began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Oregon.

Turner moved to USC in 1976 as a part-time assistant when John Robinson was named head coach. The next season he became a full-time assistant in charge of receivers (including Hoby Brenner and Kevin Williams), before switching to coach the secondary in 1980. Turner's 1980 secondary featured Ronnie Lott and Dennis Smith. Turner then moved back to offense when he became quarterback coach for three seasons prior to being named offensive coordinator in 1984. That year, the Trojans went on to win the Rose Bowl by beating Ohio State, 20-17.

Born May 17, 1952 in Martinez, CA, Turner attended Alhambra High School where he played both quaterback and defensive back.

Turner and his wife, Nancy, make their home in Huntington Beach with their son, Scott and daughter, Stephanie.

FRED WHITTINGHAM
Outside Linebacker Coach

Tied with Fritz Shurmur in seniority, Fred Whittingham begins his eighth season on the Rams' coaching staff.

Last season was filled with highs and lows for Whittingham. The high side saw the maturation of Kevin Greene as his linebacker recorded 16.5 sacks to finish second in the NFL to Reggie White's 18. The low side saw Mel Owens, who was on his way to having perhaps his finest year as a pro, cut short with a season-ending ankle injury in October. Yet with 1989s draft yielding three promising linebackers (Frank Stams, Brian Smith, and George Bethune), and the return of Mike Wilcher, and a healthy Mel Owens, Whittingham will have plenty of talent to work with.

In 1987, Whittingham had the unique opportunity to coach a team that two of his sons played for as Kyle and Cary Whittingham both appeared in three games for the Rams at inside linebacker.

After coaching the special teams and tight ends in 1982, Whittingham switched to his current position in 1983.

Whittingham spent eight seasons as an NFL linebacker, starting with the Rams in 1964 before moving on to play with the Philadelphia Eagles, New Orleans Saints, Dallas Cowboys and finishing his career with a return engagement on the Eagles in 1971.

Whittingham began his coaching career at Brigham Young University where he spent nine seasons, including the last as an assistant head coach and defensive coordinator, before coming to the NFL.

Born Feb. 4, 1942, in Boston, Whittingham attended Warwick (RI) High School before enrolling at BYU in 1957. He sat out one year before transferring to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo where he played three seasons at linebacker (1960-62). He was signed by the Rams as a free agent in 1963 but missed the season with an injury.

Whittingham and his wife, Nancy, make their home in Santa Ana. They have five children: Kyle, Cary, Fred, Jr., Brady and Julie.

ERNIE ZAMPESE
Offensive Coordinator

As Ernie Zampese enters his third season as the mastermind of the Rams' offense, he also carries with him the proud achievement of elevating the Rams' offensive unit from 19th overall in '87 to 3rd overall in 1988.

In 1988, under Zampese's leadership, the Ram offense known primarily for its running attack, became a well-balanced threat as Jim Everett emerged as one of the NFL's premier quarterbacks. To illustate, the Ram passing game ranked a dismal 27th out of 28 teams in 1987. Last season, the Rams finished 3rd in passing behind Miami and Washington. In addition, the Rams gained an impressive 5,808 yards (2nd best in the NFC), and set a team record for most first downs in a season with 333.

Zampese's reputation for his offensive wizardry was well-known at San Diego, where he guided the Chargers' offense to a number one ranking each of the four years (1983-86) he served as offensive coordinator.

Zampese, a longtime associate of former Chargers' head coach Don Coryell, holds a master's degree in physical education from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. He began his coaching career at Allan Hancock Junior College from 1962-65, including one year ('64) as head coach before moving to Cal Poly (SLO) in 1966.

In 1967, Zampese moved to San Diego State where he was the defensive back coach until 1975. At SDSU, he helped launch the careers of NFL players Joe Lavender, Willie Buchanan, Nate Wright and ex-Rams' star Monte Jackson.

Zampese joined the professional ranks in 1976 as the defensive back coach of the San Diego Chargers. He then became a scout with the New York Jets in 1977-78 before returning to the Chargers in 1979, where he became the receivers coach for four seasons.

Born March 12, 1936, Zampese was the Southern California Player of the Year as a running back at Santa Barbara High School in 1953. He was the starting tailback at USC in 1955-56, and still holds the Trojan record for the longest punt (85 yards).

Zampese and his wife, Joyce, have two daughters, Kristin and Laurie and two sons, Kenneth and Jon. They make their home in El Toro.

DON NIMS
Ticket Manager

Nims was named to his present position in 1980 after working in the Rams' ticket office since 1970. He was with Computicket as a box office consultant, California Sports as a box office manager and Crowd Management as a ticket seller. Born May 4, 1929, in Anderson, Ind., Nims competed in football, basketball and track at Greeley (Colo.) High. He attended Colorado State and Nevada-Reno, where he majored in mining. Also, he was an Army Ranger in 1951-53. He and wife Kathleen live in Long Beach, Ca. They have two children, Karen and David.

JERRY MICKELSEN
Assistant Ticket Manager

Mickelsen has been with the Rams since 1958, having worked in the ticket office of the L.A. Dodgers from 1960-68. Born July 6, 1935, in St. Paul, Minn., Mickelsen played basketball and football at University High in Los Angeles. He also attended Santa Monica (Ca.) City College and UCLA. For eight years he served in the USMC Reserve. Jerry and his wife Lora live in Westchester, Ca., with sons Gregory and Kenneth.

NANCY VAN ACKER
Speaker's Bureau and Entertainment Coordinator

Now in her tenth year with the Rams, Van Acker begins her fourth season coordinating the Rams' cheerleaders and halftime shows. She has headed the Rams' highly successful Speaker's Bureau for the past eight years in addition to organizing the Mendez Foundation (drug awareness) and Stadium Club. Van Acker was formerly the Director of Sales for the Anaheim Oranges in World Team Tennis. She makes her home in Anaheim Hills with her daughters, Jenny and Julie.

TOM GUTHRIE
Special Projects Coordinator

Guthrie joined the Rams in 1985 after a successful career in business. He was employed in a management supervising capacity of Neiman-Marcus Department Stores in Beverly Hills, Newport Beach, San Francisco, San Diego and Las Vegas. He uses his experience and expertise to enhance the Rams in the Southern California business community and is involved with promotions and administration of the Ram cheerleaders and other marketing products. Guthrie earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Virginia Commonwealth University at Richmond and has achieved several stage credits.

JIM ANDERSON
Trainer

Anderson begins his sixth year with the Rams. He had been the head trainer with the Oakland Invaders of the USFL for the previous two years. Prior to that, Anderson had served as an assistant trainer at USC (1979-82) and with the Rams during summer camps both in 1981 and '82. A 1979 graduate of the University of Colorado where he was the student trainer for both football and baseball, he's a certified member of the National Athletic Trainer's Assn. Anderson attended high school in Huntsville, Texas, where he was born on Sept. 2, 1956. He spent seven years working part-time with the Houston Oilers at their training camp each summer. Anderson is currently on the Advisory Board of the National Academy of Sports Vision. He and his wife, Gretchen, make their home in Anaheim Hills. They have three-year-old twins named Danielle and James (9/12/86).

GEORGE MENEFEE
Trainer

Menefee has been with the Rams since 1955 when he came west with coach Sid Gillman from the University of Cincinnati. Menefee was the trainer and tennis coach at Cincinnati. Born Oct. 25, 1915, in Roanoke, Virginia, Menefee played football and tennis at Portsmouth (OH) High. He attended Cincinnati in 1935-37 and again in 1946-49, earning a degree in business administration. During WWII, he was a tech sargeant in the Army Air Corps serving in England. George and his wife, Mary Lou, live in Granada Hills. They have five children: Jo Ann, Sally, Johnny, Betsy and Reba.

GARRETT GIEMONT
Strength Trainer

Giemont began working in the Rams' training room in 1970 and was hired full time in 1978. In addition to coordinating the Rams' weight training program, Giemont also closely supervises the team's off-season workouts and works closely with injured players in their rehabilitation. Born Aug. 31, 1957, in Fullerton, Giemont played football, baseball and basketball at Fullerton High School. He is partners with Mel Owens in Evolution Wear Int., Ltd., a fitness clothing company. Single, he makes his home in Irvine.

DON HEWITT
Senior Equipment Manager

Hewitt joined the Rams as equipment manager in 1967 after holding a similiar position at USC in 1965-66. Born July 7, 1923, in Fresno, Hewitt attended Roosevelt High in that city. He played football at Fresno State and served in naval aviation in WWII. After moving to the southland in 1947, Hewitt coached football at Arcadia High School until 1955. He and his wife, Jean, live in Seal Beach. They have seven children: Mike, twins Wendy and Marsha, Robin, John, Todd and Kathe.

TODD HEWITT
Equipment Manager

Todd Hewitt began helping his father, Don, in the equipment room in 1967 and was hired full time in 1978. Born Oct. 25, 1956, in Pasadena, Hewitt attended Los Alamitos High School where he played baseball and football. He graduated from UC Riverside in 1978 with a business administration degree. Hewitt, who ran in the Los Angeles Marathon during the off-season, was a starter on the 1977 UC Riverside baseball team that won the NCAA Division II title. He and his wife, Kathy, live in Cypress with their son, Travis Austin (4/20/86).

MILAN DUKICH
Video Operations

Dukich became the NFL's first full-time cinematographer when he was hired by the Rams in 1956. Dukich (nicknamed "Mickey") was previously self employed. Born April 2, 1924, in Spokane, Wa., he attended Lewis and Clark High in that city where he played football and golf. After serving three years in field artillery during WWII, he attended Washington State and graduated in 1951 with an economics degree. He also played on the WSU golf team. He is single and makes his home in Santa Ana.

FRANK TRUMP
Draft Coordinator

Trump joined the Rams as a part-time staffer in the scouting department in 1977. Besides his scouting duties, Trump organizes all reports from Rams scouts and coordinates the many details of the college draft. Born Nov. 24, 1952, in Burbank, Trump played linebacker and nose tackle at Birmingham High School in Van Nuys. He played at L.A. Valley College in 1970-71 and served in the Army from 1972-74. He and wife, Stephanie, live in La Mirada.

HARLEY SEWELL
Scout

Sewell has been scouting for the Rams since 1964 after finishing his NFL career in 1963 with the Rams. From 1953-62, Sewell played with the Detroit Lions, winning two NFL titles and playing in four Pro Bowls. Sewell was an All-America defensive specialist at the University of Texas before becoming Detroit's No. 1 draft pick in 1953. Born April 18, 1931, in St. Joseph, Texas, Harley and wife Jean live in Arlington, Texas, with their children Nathan, Janet and James.

RANDY TYSON
Scout

Tyson joined the Rams in 1977 after working for a scouting combine for five years. Before that he spent seven years as a coach at Utah State, Rhode Island and Idaho State. A center-linebacker at Utah State, Tyson was the team's MVP in 1962. He spent a year on the Chicago Bears taxi squad and two years in the Atlantic Coast League and Continental League before returning to coach at his alma mater. Born Jan. 24, 1941, in Ogden, Utah, Randy lives in Jamestown, R.I., with his wife, Rena, and children Kerry and Kenneth.

BILL STRIEGEL
Scout

Striegel begins his third season as a scout for the Rams after serving in a similiar capacity with the Atlanta Falcons for nine years. He played linebacker at College of the Pacific before being drafted by the Philadelphia Eagles in 1958. Striegel spent two years with the Eagles prior to being claimed by the Dallas Cowboys in the 1960 expansion draft where he played one additional year. Striegel resides in Stockton, Calif., with his wife, Emily.

LAWRENCE McCUTCHEON
Scout

McCutcheon begins his eighth year as a scout for the Rams after a successful football career with the team from 1972-79. McCutcheon is one of the Rams' all-time leading rushers. He spent his final season with the Buffalo Bills in 1981 before being hired by the Rams as a scout in '82. Born June 2, 1950, he was an all sport star at Plainview High School in Texas before attending Colorado State. He and his wife, Myna, live in Huntington Beach with their son, Marcus.

RANDY WARD
Creative Director

Ward brings more than a decade of sales and management experience to the special assignments he undertakes for the Rams. This native of Exmore, Va., attended the University of Virginia and Old Dominion University before beginning a distinguished career with the Brown Jordan Co. in 1973. He has been Chairman of the Board and President of the Southern Cailfornia Chapter of the Resources Council and has served two terms on the Board of Governors of the Pacific Design Center.

DR. ROBERT K. KERLAN, M.D.
Team Physician

The '89 season will mark Dr. Robert Kerlan's 16th season as team physician for the Rams' organization. He is a graduate of the University of Southern California School of Medicine where he is now a clinical professor in the Department of Orthopedic Surgery. Dr. Kerlan has been in private practice since 1950. He is a member of the Board of Orthopedic Surgery and Chairman of the Board for the National Athletic Health Institute. A Founding Member of the American Orthopedic Society of Sports Medicine, Dr. Kerlan also serves as orthopedic consultant to the Los Angeles Kings and the California Angels. He and his wife Rachel, have three children: Robert, Kim and Kerry and six grandchildren.

DR. CLARENCE L. SHIELDS, JR., M.D.
Associate Physician

Dr. Clarence Shields has served as Associate Physician for the Los Angeles Rams since 1973. He is a graduate of Creighton University School of Medicine and is presently in private practice at the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopedic Clinic in Inglewood, Ca. Dr. Shields served as a Captain and General Medical Officer in the U.S. Air Force from 1967-1969. He is a Clinical Professor at the Charles Drew School of Medicine, and USC School of Medicine. Dr. Shields is also an orthopedic consultant to the L.A. Dodgers, L.A. Lakers, L.A. Kings and California Angels. He and his wife, Barbara, have three children.

DR. TOBY FREEDMAN, M.D.
Associate Physician

Dr. Freedman begins his 15th season with the Rams as an Associate Physician. Dr. Freedman studied Pre-Med at UC Berkeley where he also played and started as a guard for the Bears football team. He finished his graduate studies at Stanford Medical School. Dr. Freedman served in the U.S. Air Force and was stationed in a Japan Hospital during the Korean War. He then continued his practice working for NASA in the field of Aerospace Medicine. He also worked for Rockwell International as a flight surgeon and flew with the pilots on their test missions (flight X-15 and B-70). Dr. Freedman, who is semi-retired, makes his home in Seattle along with his wife, Carol. They have a daughter, Andrea and two granchildren.

HEISMAN TROPHY WINNING RAMS

The Rams have had seven former Heisman Trophy winners play for them: Tom Harmon (Michigan, 1940), Bruce Smith (Minnesota, 1941), Les Horvath (Ohio State, 1944), Glenn Davis (Army, 1946), Terry Baker (Oregon State, 1962), John Cappelletti (Penn State, 1974) and Charles White (USC, 1979). Three other Heisman winners were drafted by the Rams but did not play for them: Billy Cannon (LSYU, 1959), Gary Beban (UCLA, 1967) and Doug Flutie (Boston College, 1984).

THE RAMS STORY: 1937-1989

1937 On Feb. 13, the National Football League grants a Cleveland franchise to Homer Marshman and associates, a prominent group of local businessmen. Hugo Bezdek is named head coach. As the league's rookie franchise, Rams finish with a 1-10-0 record. Bob Kelley is named radio play-by-play announcer at start of season.

1938 Assistant coach Art Lewis takes over team after three losses and Rams win three of remaining seven games.

1939 Earl "Dutch" Clark becomes head coach. Rams hit .500 mark for the first time with 5-5-1 record. Parker Hall joins team as rookie tailback and wins Joe Carr Trophy as NFL's official Most Valuable Player.

1940 Team drops back to 4-6-1 record. Johnny Drake, powerful Ram fullback, is named to first team All-NFL.

1941 Daniel F. Reeves and Fred Levy, Jr. purchase Rams in June and hire, as general manager, Billy Evans. Team wins first two games but drops next nine to finish in cellar.

1942 Evans resigns before 1942 season. Charles "Chile" Walsh replaces Art Lewis as assistant coach. Lt. Reeves and Major Levy depart to enter armed forces. Bob Kelley is named club secretary. Team finishes 5-6-0.

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark.

1949 Team wins first six games then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year.

1950 NFL absorbs AAC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to Los Angeles.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum by onesided score.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record.

1957 Ram owners name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit.

1962 Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0.

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937 dies in September. Team finishes 8-6.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office. Rams record first unbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay in Western Conference Championship Game.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team national Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year." Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world. Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for the first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named All-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen off-season trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams make playoffs for second time in as many years after finishing with 10-6 mark. Host first ever playoff game at Anaheim Stadium before record crowd of 67,037 but lose to New York Giants in NFC wild card game. Again Eric Dickerson is the offensive force behind the Rams success as he rushes for 2,105 yards breaking O.J. Simpson's NFL record of 2,003. Jack Youngblood sets Ram record by playing in his 201st consecutive game. Quarterback Jeff Kemp replaces injured Vince Ferrangamo in Week Three and leads team to nine wins. Dickerson is named NFC Player of the Year and makes Pro Bowl along with Henry Ellard, Kent Hill and Doug Smith.

1985 Rams season falls just one game short when they get beat by the Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week Five. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week Twelve. Eric Dickerson misses first two games but returns to rush for 1,234 yards. he sets an NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in first ever playoff win (20-0) at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team; Ron Brown, Jim Collins, Gary Green, Dale Hatcher, LeRoy Irvin, and four offensive linemen, Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith.

1986 Rams make playoffs for fourth consecutive year after posting a 10-6 regular season record. Rams acquire rookie Quarterback Jim Everett from Houston in major trade with Oilers. Everett throws three touchdown passes in debut against Patriots and starts last five games including playoff loss to Washington. Eric Dickerson rushes for over 1,000 yards for fourth consecutive season (1,821) and surpasses former Ram running back Lawrence McCutcheon as the teams all-time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons. Defense plays important role in Rams' success, finishing fifth in total defense in the NFL yielding 304 yards per game. Seven Rams selected to Pro Bowl - Dickerson, Carl Ekern, Jerry Gray, Dennis Harrah, LeRoy Irvin, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith.

1987 Rams fail to make the playoffs for the first time in last five seasons while finishing with a 6-9 record. NFL players' strike shortens season by one game while three games are played with non-union players. Rams acquire six draft choices (three No. One's and three No. Two's over the next two years) from the Colts in blockbuster trade for Running Back Eric Dickerson. Charles White takes over for Dickerson and wins NFL rushing title by gaining 1,374 yards and is named to his first Pro Bowl as well as unanimous All-NFL.

1988 Rams qualify for the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson, who becomes the winningest coach in club history with 58 wins. Rams lose NFC Wild Card Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Team features wide open offense as Jim Everett sets four Ram passing records and ties a fifth while wide receiver Henry Ellard sets a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86. Defensively, the Rams tie a club record with 56 quarterback sacks which leads the league. Rams have five of the top 47 choices in draft and select RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox on the first round. Five players are selected to the Pro Bowl - Jackie Slater, Ellard, Tom Newberry, Doug Smith and Jerry Gray.

1989 Rams culminate Dickerson trade by selecting five of the top 53 choices in draft. Rams select DE Bill Hawkins and RB Cleveland Gary both from the University of Miami, on the first round. Team signs three free agents under new system, DE Byron Darby, DT Henry Brown and LB Wayne Davis, while they lose 12. Running back Charles White announces his retirement in off-season. Rams celebrate 10-year anniversary in Anaheim Stadium.

1988 Ram Pro Bowlers: Doug Smith, Tom Newberry, Jerry Gray, Jackie Slater and Henry Ellard.

A SPECIAL TEAM – THE RAMS AND OSCAR MAYER

For the fourth time in as many years, the Rams and Oscar Mayer will be teaming for the community. In each of the last three seasons performances by the Rams' special teams resulted in Oscar Mayer donations of more than $13,000 to the Fullerton Boys Club and $6,000 to the Olive Crest Treatment Center, the Orange County-based program for child abuse. This year, Olive Crest Treatment Center will again be the beneficiary.

Oscar Mayer will donate $100 for every punt of 50 yards or longer; every kick return of 25 yards or longer; every punt return of 10 yards or longer; every field goal or any blocked kick or punt. For every touchdown special teams scores, Oscar Mayer will donate $500 to Olive Crest.

1988 SEASON IN REVIEW

RAMS 34, at Green Bay 7
Lambeau Field, Sept. 4

The Rams opened their 1988 regular season in Green Bay with a 34-7 victory over the Packers. It was the first time in 18 years the Rams have played the Packers in Lambeau Field. The Rams jumped out to a 21-0 lead behind a one-yard touchdown run by Greg Bell and two touchdown passes by Jim Everett, a three-yarder to Bell and a 11-yard pass to Henry Ellard. Jerry Gray intercepted a Don Majkowski pass in the third quarter and returned it 47 yards for a touchdown to increase the Rams lead to 31-0. The Packers denied the Rams a shut out in the fourth quarter when Majkowski hit TE Ed West with a 17-yard touchdown pass. Mike Lansford closed out the scoring when he connected on his second field goal, a 29-yarder to make it 34-7.

RAMS 17, Detroit 10
Anaheim Stadium, Sept. 11

Greg Bell rushed for 139 yards on 27 carries and scored one touchdown to help give the Rams a 17-10 come from behind win over the Detroit Lions. Bell's 100-yard rushing game was his first since he gained 123 yards on 19 carries while a member of the Buffalo Bills in 1985. Defensively, the Rams sacked Lion quarterbacks five times (-43 yards), giving them 12 sacks in the first two games. The Rams scored 10 second half points to secure the win. Following Lansford's 46-yard field goal to tie the game, Everett hit TE Damone Johnson on a four-yard pass for the game winner.

RAMS 22, at L.A. Raiders 17
Memorial Coliseum, Sept. 18

Defense again was the name of the game as the Rams produced nine quarterback sacks, one safety and an interception en route to a 22-17 win over the crosstown rival Raiders at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Gary Jeter led the team with five sacks (-33 yards) followed by Mel Owens (2), Mike Wilcher and Kevin Greene. With the game tied at 10, Greene tripped Raiders' quarterback Mark Beuerlein in the end zone to make it 12-10. The Rams increased their lead to five, 15-10, on Mike Lansford's second field goal of the day, a 46-yarder. Jim Everett closed out the scoring when he hit WR Aaron Cox on a 54-yard touchdown pass with just over two minutes left. Everett completed 13 of 24 passes for 178 yards and one touchdown while Greg Bell rushed for 109 yards and scored one rushing touchdown. It was the second straight week in which Bell has rushed for over 100 yards.

RAMS 45, at New York Giants 31
Meadowlands, Sept. 25

The Rams remained only one of three unbeaten teams in the NFL following a 45-31 win over the New York Giants. Quarterback Jim Everett tied a Rams single game record with five touchdown passes in the Rams' win. He completed 14 of 24 passes for 236 yards and an interception to go along with his five touchdowns which were to five different receivers, TE Pete Holohan (14 yards), FB Robert Delpino (five yards), WR Aaron Cox (69 yards), RB Greg Bell (two yards), and WR Henry Ellard (41 yards). Bell gained 112 yards on 31 carries, for his third straight 100-yard game. The Rams capitalized on three Giant turnovers, a blocked punt, fumble recovery an a interception to gain the victory.

RAMS 33, at Atlanta Falcons 0
Fulton-County Stadium, Oct. 9

The Rams rebounded from their only loss of the season last week and shut out the Atlanta Falcons, 33-0, in Atlanta. The Rams scored six times (five in the first half) en route to their first win in Atlanta since 1984 while showcasing a balanced attack. They rolled up 501 total yards (252 rushing and 249 passing) on offense and sacked Falcon quarterbacks nine times for minus 71 yards on defense. Jim Everett passed for three touchdowns while completing 15 of 24 passes for 234 yards. Running back Greg Bell rushed for a season high 155 yards (110 in the first half) and scored one touchdown while WR Henry Ellard caught seven passes for 134 yards, including one touchdown, to lead the team in receiving. Defensively, the Rams accounted for nine sacks for the second time this season. Linebacker Kevin Greene led the team with three for (-27 yards). The Rams jumped out to a 27-0 halftime lead and never looked back. They limited the Falcons to only 28 yards through the first two quarters while racking up 344 themselves.

San Francisco 49ers 24, at RAMS 21
Anaheim Stadium, Oct. 16

A 16-yard run by the 49ers Roger Craig lifted San Francisco to a 24-21 win over the Rams. It was the second straight home defeat for the Rams while dropping their record to 5-2. The Rams were outgained (429-236) while rushing for only 42 yards. The last time the Rams failed to gain more than 42 yards rushing was in the 1975 NFC Championship game against the Dallas Cowboys when they rushed for 22 yards. Jim Everett completed 20 of 33 passes for 199 yards and three touchdowns. It was the second straight game in which Everett has passed for three touchdowns. Down 17-7 at halftime, the Rams took control of the game when Everett hit Henry Ellard on an 18-yard touchdown pass to bring the Rams to within three, 17-14. The Rams took their only lead of the game on Everett's third touchdown pass of the game, an eight-yarder to Buford McGee in the third quarter. The 49ers scored the game winner on their very next series. Craig's 16-yard run capped an 11-play, 93-yard drive. Craig finished the day with 190 yards rushing on 22 carries and three touchdowns. He also had five catches for 12 yards.

Philadelphia 30, RAMS 24
Veterans Stadium, Nov. 6

The Eagles, behind the play of quarterback Randall Cunningham, handed the Rams (7-3) their first road loss of the season, 30-24, before a crowd of 65,264 at Veterans Stadium. Cunningham, who accounted for 376 of the Eagles' 436 yards on offense, completed 22 of 39 passes for 323 yards and three touchdowns. He also led the Eagles in rushing with 53 yards on eight carries. The Rams had a chance to tie the game with just under a minute left but turned the ball over on the Eagles' seven-yard line on Jim Everett's fourth interception of the game. Everett set a career high passing with 377 yards on 24 of 45 passes.

New Orleans Saints 14, at RAMS 10
Anaheim Stadium, Nov. 13

In a battle for first-place in the NFC Western Division, the Rams dropped a 14-10 decision to the Saints in a rematch between the two teams at Anaheim Stadium. The win gave the Saints a split in the season series after the Rams took the opener two weeks earlier in New Orleans (12-10). Like their game against the Eagles (a 30-24 loss a week earlier), the Rams had a chance to pull it out in the final minute but an errant Jim Everett pass was intercepted, this time by the Saints' Gene Atkins, which eliminated a Rams' comeback.

San Diego Chargers 38, at RAMS 24
Anaheim Stadium, Nov. 20

The Chargers, capitalizing on big plays and Ram turnovers, handed the Rams their third straight loss, 38-24, at Anaheim Stadium. With the score tied at seven, the Chargers took the lead when Anthony Miller returned a kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown and a 14-7 lead. The Chargers added their second return of the game in the third quarter when linebacker Keith Browner picked off a Charles White fumble in mid-air and returned it to midfield before lateraling the ball to CB Sam Seale who went 50 yards for the score. Former Ram running back Barry Redden added two rushing touchdowns in the fourth quarter to secure the win for the Chargers.

RAMS 23, Chicago Bears 3
Anaheim Stadium, Dec. 5

The Rams broke a four-game losing streak and kept their playoff hopes alive with a 23-3 victory over the Chicago Bears in their only appearance on Monday Night football this season. Jim Everett, Henry Ellard and Greg Bell continued their assault on the Ram record books with impressive statistical performances. Everett completed 17 of 31 passes for 251 yards, giving him 3,460 yards passing, breaking Vince Ferragamo's mark of 3,276 set in 1983. Ellard caught six passes for 132 yards to give him an NFL high 1,248 yards. Bell gained 98 yards on 28 carries to give him 1,058 for the season. Bell becomes the seventh Ram to reach 1,000 yards rushing in a season and the six straight Ram running back to break the 1,000 yard mark under John Robinson.

RAMS 22, Atlanta Falcons 7
Anaheim Stadium, Dec. 11

The Rams swept the season series with the Falcons taking the second game, 22-7, at Anaheim Stadium. The game was never in doubt as the Rams enjoyed a 22-0 lead before the Falcons ever got on the scoreboard. The Rams had shut out the Falcons in 11 consecutive quarters before linebacker Jesse Tuggle recovered a fumble deep in Rams' territory and returned it for a Falcons touchdown in the fourth quarter. Quarterback Jim Everett completed 24 of 33 passes for 303 yards for his sixth 300-yard passing game of his career.

Minnesota Vikings 28, RAMS 17
Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, Dec. 26

The Vikings handed the Rams a 28-17 loss in the NFC Wild Card game played in Minnesota. The Vikings, playing in front of 57,666 fans in the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, scored twice early in the first quarter with the help of two pass interceptions by safety Joey Browner off quarterback Jim Everett. Browner intercepted his first Everett pass deep in Rams territory on their first possession. His second came on the next series when he returned it to the Rams 17-yard line. The Rams scored their first touchdown in the second quarter on a three-yard pass from Everett to tight end Damone Johnson, to make it 14-7. The Vikings added another score, a one-yard run by Alfred Anderson, following a 14-play, 84-yard drive to make the score, 21-7. Both teams exchanged touchdowns to close out the scoring and make the final score, 28-17.

Instant Replay Approved for 1989

For the fourth consecutive season, NFL clubs have approved a limited system of Instant Replay on a one-year basis.

The system stays the same as in 1988. The Replay Official will be assigned a regular officiating crew and will attend crew meetings the day before each game.

The following table outlines the number of reversals and plays closely reviewed by Instant Replay in each of the previous three seasons.

	Games	Reversals	Plays Closely Reviewed
1986	224	38	374
1987	210	57	490
1988	224	53	537

In 1986, the system was approved by a 23-4-1 vote. In 1987, the vote was 21-7. In 1988, replay was cleared by a 23-5 margin. In 1989, the vote was 24-4.

The NFL has discussed Instant Replay in some degree or other since the early 1970s. The League experimented in 1976 and 1978 using two basic frameworks — an independent system using cameras, replay machines, and technicians separate from the network covering the games, and a "no-frills" approach using existing TV coverage.

In 1985, the NFL used the network feed of the nine nationally-televised preseason games to experiment with the basic system which later was adopted for 1986, 1987, and 1988. A total of 28 plays (17 confirmed call, 4 inconclusive, 1 reversed, and 6 no replay shown) were closely examined in the 1985 experiment.

Q—What is the objective of this system?

A—The clubs feel that on certain plays the telecast viewed by the general public should be used to correct an indisputable error. The system will be used to reverse an on-field decision only when the Replay Official has indisputable visual evidence available to him that warrants the change.

Q—Who will be involved?

A—The Replay Official (a former NFL or collegiate official) will be positioned in a sideline Replay Booth, which will house two TV monitors and two high-speed VCRs plus radio communications to the on-field officials. The Replay Official makes the decision although a Communicator (normally a member of the League Office staff) and a Technician also will be there to lend logistical help.

Q—Why is the system referred to as "limited" Instant Replay?

A—This system will concentrate on plays of possession or touching (e.g. fumbles, receptions, interceptions, muffs) and most plays governed by the sidelines, goal lines, end lines, and line of scrimmage (e.g. receiver or runner in or out of bounds, forward or backward passes, breaking the plane of the goal line). It also will be used to determine whether there are more than 11 men on the field.

Q—Why aren't most fouls included in this system?

A—It is recognized that in most circumstances the on-field officials have the best vantage points involving fouls. It is for this reason that Instant Replay will not review a list of the following 26 fouls:

1. Clipping
2. Encroachment or offsides
3. Grasp of facemask
4. False start
5. Defensive pass interference
6. Offensive pass interference
7. Offensive holding and illegal use of hands
8. Illegal batting or punching ball
9. Illegal block on free kick or scrimmage kick
10. Illegal crackback
11. Illegal motion
12. Illegal use of forearm or elbow
13. Illegal use of hands by defense
14. Illegally kicking ball
15. Illegally snapping ball
16. Intentional grounding
17. Member of punting team downfield early
18. Illegal formation
19. Palpably unfair act
20. Piling on
21. Roughing the passer
22. Running into/roughing kicker
23. Striking, kicking, or kneeing
24. Unnecessary roughness
25. Unsportsmanlike conduct
26. Use of helmet as a weapon

Q—Is the television network carrying the game part of the review process?

A—No. Although the Replay Official will be viewing the live network feed, there is no communication to television personnel as to which plays to show or not to show.

Q—What is the step-by-step procedure of a play review?

A—The Replay Official will view game action and a play will be replayed immediately on one of the two monitors, while the other one continues to record the live feed.

The Replay Official makes a determination if further study of the play is needed. If not, there is no contact with the field and play continues without interruption.

If the Replay Official believes an error may have been made the Umpire will be contacted via a headset.

The Replay Official will watch replay(s) on one or both monitors and complete his review within a reasonable period after the play is over.

The Replay Official will inform the Umpire of his decision, and the Referee will make the appropriate announcement on the wireless microphone.

1989 NFL Rules Changes

Instant Replay will return for the 1989 NFL season.

At the NFL annual meeting in March at Palm Desert, California, club owners, for the fourth consecutive year, voted to utilize a limited Instant Replay system as an officiating aid. The vote was 24-4.

Replay was first adopted in 1986. It is used if there is indisputable visual evidence on videotape of an obvious error by a field official on plays limited to possession and goal line and out-of-bounds decisions.

The Replay system in 1989 remains the same as the 1988 version when the Instant Replay official was assigned to work with the same seven-man, on-the-field crew throughout the regular season.

In other action, a joint proposal by the Long-Range Planning and Finance committees regarding player personnel also was adopted. The committees' recommendation for the first time sets offseason roster limits and the creation of a developmental squad. It also addressed roster cutdown dates and injured reserve. The teams agreed:

Until May 31: No more than 90 players under contract.

—June 1: No more than 80 players under contract.

—Roster cutdown to 60 players after third preseason game (August 29).

—Roster cutdown to 47 players Monday (September 4) prior to regular-season opener.

—Regular-season game roster of 45 players plus two inactive.

—Developmental squad of six players maximum per club established after final cut to 47 and comprised of only rookies/first-year players who have passed through waivers.

—Players placed on injured reserve during the preseason may not return to same club that year; also may not practice.

—Players placed on injured reserve after the final cut may return after six games by free reactivation (each club has five) or procedural-recall waivers.

—Two practice options: Option 1: After four weeks on injured reserve, player can practice for two weeks, then club must waive or activate; Option 2: After six weeks on injured reserve, player can be activated, waived, or begin unlimited practice. If practicing, player must count against developmental squad total of six.

Also, the clubs approved the following:

—Further clarified the roughing-the-passer rule by prohibiting a defender who has an unrestricted path to the quarterback from flagrantly hitting him in the area of the knees when approaching from any direction.

—Specified that fouls which occur in the last five minutes of the fourth quarter as well as the last two minutes of the first half will result in the clock starting on the snap.

—Called for strong disciplinary measures against feigned injuries.

—Any entering substitute who participates in a play must enter while the ball is dead and must move onto the field as far as the inside field numerals; in addition, the player or players replaced must have cleared the field on their own side (between end lines) prior to the snap or free kick.

—Established a new set of procedures, including loss of team timeouts or a five-yard penalty on the defense, to handle the problem of crowd noise which prevents the offense from hearing its signals.

—Further liberalized blocking rule to permit a blocker to initially contact on or outside the opponent's frame of the body so long as the blocker works to bring his hands back on or inside the frame after initial contact.

—Changed the simultaneous catch rule so that the offensive or defensive player who first controls and continues to maintain control of a pass will be awarded the ball even though his opponent later establishes joint control of the ball.

—Prohibited the offense, while in the process of substitution or simulated substitution, from rushing quickly to the line and snapping the ball with the obvious attempt to cause a defensive foul. In such an instance, the umpire shall hold the snap, giving the defense a reasonable time to complete its substitution or if a defensive foul results, the flag will be picked up and the down replayed.
